

Lou Flagg Historical Gold Ribbon Award

Prepared by ASHRAE Historical Committee

Lou Flagg Historical Gold Ribbon Award

- Recognizes the vital role historians play in identifying and preserving the accomplishments of its members and the industry.
- Recognizes the most outstanding history on projects or persons.

Lou Flagg Historical Gold Ribbon Award

- Presented annually at the Society's Annual Meeting.
- Recipient is selected from nominations submitted to and judged by the Historical Committee.
- One nomination is submitted yearly from each Region.
- Nominations must be received at ASHRAE Headquarters by Dec. 1st.

Lou Flagg Historical Gold Ribbon Award

- Judging Criteria:

Historical Significance	35 points
Innovation	20 points
Photographs	20 points
Quality of Presentation	15 points
Gold Ribbon Award Recipient	10 points

Lou Flagg Historical Gold Ribbon Award

- Historical Significance:
  - History of a person, object created or invented
  - Significant contribution to the progress of HVAC&R industry
  - Of historical value

NOTE: Submittal should address the projects (persons) significance in the history of HVAC&R.

Lou Flagg Historical Gold Ribbon Award

- Innovation:
  - Show efforts to locate & identify the information gathering process
  - Project should describe the facts pertaining to the article

Lou Flagg Historical Gold Ribbon Award

- Photographs or duplicates of photos:
  - Encourage to utilize photos or illustrations in the submittal
  - Illustrations and photos should enhance the presentation
  - All photos should be identified (who, what, when, where and why)

NOTE: Do not submit original photographs.

Lou Flagg Historical Gold Ribbon Award

- Quality of Presentation:
  - Logical presentation with good features clearly highlighted
    - Simple to read system schematics or charts
    - Easy-to-follow series of photos
  - Concise and effective presentation
  - Significance in HVAC&R history

Lou Flagg Historical Gold Ribbon Award

- Chapter “Gold Ribbon” Award Recipient:
  - Society encourages active participation at all levels
  - Entrant must be a winner of a chapter “Gold Ribbon Award”
  - Provide a notice or documentation from Society where a scaled back copy of topic is stored

